교과목 교육목표 (Course Objectives)	This class will explore a number of U.S. public policies and compare them with other countries policies based on the national culture. Students will gain knowledge of U.S. public policy as well as other countries public policies. The policies may include women and work, minimum wages, home schooling, and aging population. After taking this class, (1) students will gain knowledge of a number of countries public policy and (2) how to implement comparison study based on cultural variation. This class is recommended for the upper class.
교과목개요 (Course Description)	The class meets twice a week, Monday and Wednesday. This class is English-lecture class and most of times, an instructor lectures in English; however, time to time an instructor also explains the context in Korean. After 8th week or after mid-term exam, students will have an opportunity to debate on the context we learn in class. It will be fun, trust me. There will be in-class mid-term exam and final paper. Students will have option to write either in English or in Korean. There will be classes on the following days. Therefore, we will not have any make-up classes. 9/7(wed.) For class in 9/12, it will held on 9/24 (sat) same time, 15:30-16:15. 10/3(mon.) 10/10(mon.)
